Giselle

Fabienne

Fabienne conjures up the faded elegance of French chateaux and the charm of rustic country manors. 18th and 19th century documents from the Sanderson archive provided the inspiration for many of the floral prints which have been given fresh, contemporary treatments, with stunning results. Textures have been used to soften the designs giving them an aged, antique linen feel. The colour palette is of soft, mineral colours; serene blues and romantic pastels, through to the richer, autumnal tones of russet. The deliberately pared back styling of the collection creates welcoming and informally elegant living spaces.
